Brief facts of the case:-

In the RTI application, appellant has sought following information:-

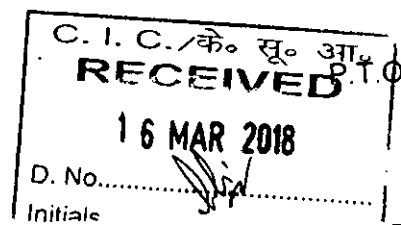

"1. Please look my RTI application of Dated 26.12.2017 and the RTI reply of Dated 26.08.2017 from the Registrar of Newspapers for India which feels that this is not the certain process of putting the RTI application and kindly take my request RTI and supply a style of RTI presentation in which way I get the publication certificate from the RNI within the advised timeframe which placed in the RTI reply.

2. The Central Information Commission feels that I wrongfully places the RTI applications in Form-A, before the CPIO, please supply some proper presentation styles of application, First Appeal and the Second Appeal some well decided sets with correctly links with RTI Act's time and again amended methods which department-wise I can present in future applications properly.

3. Hon'ble Information Commissioner Mr. Divya Prakash Sinha Sir, which I listened the wrongful placement of RTI application at the hearing of Dated 15.01.2018's Second Appeal, as an appellant I think better for further communication for my best presentation at first place my application near this office and please guide me how I collect the publication certificate of the Pardarshi Odia Weekly newspaper which had already completed the authentication and due to default in press keepers declaration it stopped and this press keepers declaration already cleared through Addl. District Magistrate on Dated 29.11.2017 the copy of that letter also presented near your honour and how I present the style of RTI properly or make correction my RTI application of Dated 26.12.2017 or at any cost how I collect the publication certificate please furnish me an RTI application formulae which must success."

2. Shri H.P. Sen, CPIO cum DO to IC(DP) vide letter dated 30.01.2018 has replied as under:-

"With reference to your above RTI application it is intimated that no such style of RTI presentation is in knowledge of the undersigned. You are requested to go through the RTI Act, 2005 which may help you to submit the RTI application in proper way. Further, there is no prescribed format of application for seeking information nor it is required to give reasons for seeking information."

Decision with reasons:-

3. In the appeal, the appellant has stated that Shri Ashok Kumar Sharma, CPIO, CIC has transferred the RTI application to office of the RNI u/s 6(3) of the RTI Act, which is not found correct. Shri Ashok Kumar Sharma, CPIO, CIC has transferred the RTI application to Shri H.P. Sen, CPIO of CIC for providing the information. It is further observed from the appeal that the appellant is not aggrieved with the reply of the CPIO, Shri H.P. Sen but he has some grievances with the Registrar of Newspapers for India (RNI) relating to publication certificate. FAA, CIC is not concerned with the grievances of the appellant with the RNI. As far as reply of the RTI application is concerned, the reply given by the CPIO, CIC, Shri H.P. Sen is appropriate.

4. The appeal is, therefore, disposed of accordingly.

5. In case the appellant is aggrieved by the decision, he is free to file second appeal, if he so desires, before the Central Information Commission, Baba Gang Nath Marg, Munirka, New Delhi-110067 against this order within 90 days.

Dated the 15th March, 2018.
