(information sent electronically through RTI portal)

Please refer to your RTI application dated 11/04/2023 in which you have, inter alia, sought information pertaining to File No. CIC/EPFON/A/2023/111377. The said file pertains to the Registry of IC(SP). The point wise information is furnished below:

Reply to Point No. 1 – Once the second appeal is received in the Commission, a diary No. is allotted to the same. Later on scrutiny of the documents received from the appellant is done. If any deficiency is found, a letter is sent to the appellant by the Central Registry of the Commission for removal of the deficiency. However, if no deficiency is found, then the case is registered in the Commission and a file No. is allotted to the same.

As far as the issuing of notice to the CPIO is concerned, it is stated that in the Commission, cases are listed for hearing in chronological order. A notice is served to both the parties as and when date of hearing is fixed, giving details of date and time of hearing, venue of hearing, etc.

Reply to Point No. 2 - It is stated that, if an applicant/complainant wants early hearing in the case, he/she has to file a request mentioning the grounds for seeking early hearing with copies of the supporting documents. Once a request is received, the same is placed before the Information Commissioner for consideration. Further action is taken as per the decision of the Information Commissioner.

Reply to Point No. 3 – Once a complaint is received in the Commission, a diary No. is allotted to the same. Later on scrutiny of the documents received from the complainant is done. If any deficiency is found, a letter is sent to the complainant from the Central Registry of the Commission for removal of the deficiencies. However, if no deficiency is found, then the case is registered in the Commission and a file No. is allotted to the same.

In the Commission, the complaint cases are listed for hearing in chronological order. A notice is served to both the parties as and when date of hearing is fixed, giving details of date and time of hearing, venue of hearing, etc.
