Sub: Information under RTI Act, 2005.

Sir/Madam,

Information sought for	Information given
1. Under the RTI Act, 2005, is it permissible to demand the details of expenses incurred by a government department for maintaining its office over a period of the last five years? Specifically, I am requesting clarification on whether it is within the scope of the RTI Act to seek such financial details, including costs for maintenance, infrastructure, operations, and related expenditures. 2. If it is permissible to request such information, which specific section of the RTI Act allows a citizen to demand these details? Kindly provide the relevant provisions under the Act that cover such requests.	You may refer to RTI Act, 2005 which is already available in public domain as well as CIC's website link https://cic.gov.in/sites/default/files/RTI-Act_English.pdf
3. Please provide any case laws or judicial precedents that may support the right to access such information under the RTI Act, especially regarding the financial details of government offices or departments.	Point Pertains to CPIO & SO (Legal Cell) and forwarded the same through RTI-Portal online on 27.01.2025.

If you are not satisfied with this information you may file a First Appeal within 30 days of receipt of this information to Smt. Roop Avtar Kaur, First Appellate Authority, Central Information Commission, Baba Ganganath Marg, New Delhi - 110067.
